JEFF. DAVIS' TRIAL TO TAKE PLACE IN NOVEMBER.

SETTLEMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT VS. FRAZIER, TRENNHOLM & CO. CASE.

LATEST INTELLIGENCE FROM THE PLAINS.

THE INDIANS ATTACK GEN. MARCY, KILLING ONE AND WOUNDING SEVERAL OF HIS PARTY.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE AT PETERBURG.

ARREST OF COUNTERFEITERS AT PHILADELPHIA.

Special to the Morning Herald.

James Stevens and James Hearn, of this place, are pledged to wrestle to-morrow at four o'clock in the afternoon on the grounds of the O. C. B. Club, best five out of nine.

The Herald's City of Mexico special of the 17th, says: Vice Admiral Tegobol's immediate return to Austria is determined upon if the rumors of Maximilian's not being released soon.

General Diaz accepts the candidature, and his adherents are organizing. A future election campaign is going on.

The Herald's Richmond special says: It has now become definitely settled that the Davis trial will take place at the November session of the Circuit Court here. Judge Chase has expressed his intention of presiding, and if the rebel ex-President does not fail to come to time on his straw ball, questions of great importance will arise which will require the aid of the ablest legal talent in the country to decide.

The opinion is expressed that allowing Davis to appear, the trial will be evaded and shifted by the Government, and the prisoner will not be set at liberty on bail. The reason for this is that such an evasive action would be a direct insult to the public, and the Government would demand a trial, and if the Government argues as an excuse that it is not ready, the Court will express its intention to remain in session a sufficient time for it to prepare.

Falling in this, a note was given to the prisoner may be effected. The latter is not likely, and the trial which the nation at large demands will be proceeded with.

A Herald's Washington special says: The Treasury Department has, it is stated, received a report from New York City to the effect that Henry Hart has caused an advertisement to be made upon the personal property of himself to the amount of $400,000, to indemnify the United States for losses alleged to have been sustained through the frauds of himself and accomplices.

General Schofield has refused to obey a writ of habeas corpus in which the Judge of the Richmond Circuit Court ordered an enlisted soldier brought before him for discharge.

The Times' special says: The settlement of the Boston & Co. case has been accomplished. The terms are not made public.

A number of clerks in the Quartermaster's Department have been notified that their services will not be wanted after the 30th inst.

Dr. Snodgrass publishes a statement by which it appears that the loyal Government present at the Antislavery Convention, especially the more than twenty, were to make addresses, but Governor Swann at the dictation of the President, called for the Convention just in time to cut them off.

The Tribune's special says: Colonel Messmore, Deputy Commissioner of Indian Affairs, has been notified that his resignation will be accepted. Regarding himself persecuted by the whisky ring in New York, Colonel A. will not tender his resignation.

Colonel Wiswell, formerly commander of the Military Department of Washington City, is mentioned as his successor.

General Marcy, while returning from a tour of inspection in New Mexico, was attacked by Indians near Pawnee Fork and Lieut. Williams, of the Fifth Infantry, lost a leg, and one man killed and three wounded. The stage was also attacked at Pawnee Fork.

Fortress Monroe, Sept. 27. The destruction of Reuben Ryland's tobacco factory by fire, at Petersburg, Va., resulted in a loss of $200,000. Insured for $300,000. About three hundred hands are thrown out of employment.

Philadelphia, Sept. 27. Dr. M. A. Gorman, Nat. Kenny and Miss Curran were arrested last night on a charge of manufacturing counterfeit bank notes. The officers also seized $2,500 in counterfeit notes.

They also captured the plates for printing notes on the Fourth National Bank of New York City, and fifty cent fractional currency, and the same were secured, and the notes of Gorman it is ascertained he had a contract to supply notes on the First National Bank of New York, to be executed next week. Gorman is said to be the man who first turned counterfeit fractional currency. The parties will have a hearing before the United States Commissioner immediately.

Kinston, N. C., Sept. 26. The highest in the District market case closed to-day. All four prisoners were released on their trial. The jury contemplated the American officers for the country shown the Canadian fugitives, who were delivered up without the forms and delays usual in cases of extradition.

New York, Sept. 27. The police yesterday arrested thirty burglars for slaughtering animals between Forty-second and Forty-eighth streets, near North River, without permits from the Board of Health.

General Sigel was arrested at Morristown last night, where he has recently taken up his residence.

Bishop Wood, just returned from Europe, was warmly received by the Roman Catholics of Philadelphia yesterday.

William C. Holland, late Surgeon General U. S. Army, has been appointed a Professor in Bellevue Hospital.

A meeting was held at the Armory of the First Regiment last evening for the purpose of making arrangements for the reception of General Sheridan. Permission was granted to the colored leagues and organizations to turn out.

Five deaths occurred and fifteen are still in the hospital, some of whom will not recover. It is reported that the colored men have been released to support business until the Secretary of the Treasury so orders the regulations that they will not, as it is alleged, destroy their trade.

PETROLEUM MARKETS.

At the opening of business this morning the Petroleum market presented an exceedingly adverse aspect, but later in the day dispatches were received showing some improvement in the New York and Philadelphia markets, which caused this market to assume a little better look.

Several of the producers are crowded in consequence of a portion of the oil purchased during the past twenty days not having been moved. On Bull Run small lots were offered at $3.75 at the well. On Pioneer Run small lots were offered at $3.75 at the well. On Church Run small lots were offered at $3.75 at the well.

population shared in the demonstration, and the enthusiasm excited by his presence, eclipsed everything.

—A Republican mass meeting will be held at Huron county on Thursday next, at which Hon. Wm. D. Kelly, of Philadelphia, will speak.
Mr. Kelly will also speak at the meeting in Titusville on the day following.

—R. H. Birch, of Greenville, Mercer county, was killed by a train on the Cleveland & Pittsburgh Railroad, on Saturday last, whilst walking on the track. The unfortunate man leaves a wife and one daughter at Greenville.

—Counterfeit $30 notes on the Fourth National Bank of Philadelphia, and the First National Bank of Indianapolis, Indiana, are in circulation, and counterfeit $10's on the Third National Bank of Philadelphia, are said to be numerous.

—A fashionable lady of Reading, a woman of culture and refinement, was found in the streets of that city on Monday in a state of brutal intoxication and uttering most shocking language.
A gentleman acquainted with her happened to meet her, and conducted her to her home.

—We have the gorgeous Riverdale Magazine for October, resplendent typographically and pictorially. Mr. Stephens' (pseudonym) extravaganza, delicious. The stories and sketches are all good.

—Since this State has been under Republican rule, embracing the period and great cost of the war, the State debt has been reduced nearly or quite ten millions of dollars. While the State was in the hands of the Democrats the State debt was each year steadily increased, until it ran up to over forty millions of dollars. These are facts which cannot be controverted.

—The Buffalo Express relates that the Mayor and Common Council of Titusville tolerating houses of ill-fame on the principal streets of the city.
That the way the story travels, and will continue to travel until the nuisance is abated. We ask the Common Council, as a matter of policy concerning the welfare and reputation of the town, to move these people off the main streets.
They have ample power to do this, and ought not to wait for the people to do it themselves.
That would only add to the public disgrace and mortification.

—Gen. Hugh Ewing, resident American Minister at the Hague, sends a dispatch to the State Department, dated at the capital of Holland, September 26th, that the celebrated Hans Graf bequest, which has set all Lancaster county in motion, quickened her historians, and stimulated a general cultivation of ancestral timber, has no foundation in fact.

—After December 1st, no bookkeepers will be allowed on the New York Central Railroad cars.
The rule is already in force east of Syracuse. It would be an agreeable reform if all the railroads in the country interdicted the traffic in "books" as it is now conducted on the different trains, as the literature circulated is of a kind to insult the decency of all travelers.

—We are informed that real estate has depreciated twenty-five per cent. on East Erie street, since the establishment of the houses of ill-fame in Mrs. Moon's building near the Crittenden House, on Diamond street. We know of a gentleman who has a lease of a residence in that neighborhood, who offers to give a half year's rent for a surrender of the lease, that he may remove to a decent locality. Will the Common Council continue to pile up the taxes, and at the same time witness the constant depreciation of property by tolerating those filthy abominations on Diamond street.

A Garibaldi Arrested!
A proclamation by Garibaldi, dated and issued from Ancona, on Sunday last, announcing the commencement of his movement against Rome, compelled Victor Emmanuel, (in obedience to his treaty obligations,) to issue a counter proclamation on Sunday, denouncing the expedition and threatening punishment to all his subjects who participated therein. On Monday, General Garibaldi, when at Shigaglia, sixteen miles northwest of Ancona, was summoned by the officers of Victor Emmanuel, to retire his steps, and upon his refusal to comply with this command, he was immediately arrested and conveyed to the fortress of Alessandria, where he now remains a prisoner. The arms and amuni-tions collected for the invasion, were also seized, and the volunteers were made prisoners. A number of French transports and war vessels were at Toulon on Tuesday, under orders to evacuate French soldiers for Italy, in aid of the King against the forces of the Liberator. This news has produced intense excitement all over Europe, from Rome to every country, as it is generally believed that complications must arise from these facts, of a most serious nature. All the Roman troops are being concentrated in and around the city. Italian soldiers are being sent to the Italian frontier, in short, activity and alarm prevail all the Cabinets of Europe. What the end may be no man can tell. It may be a general war, or affairs may subside for the present and remain quiet, on the surface, until next year, when we believe there will be such terrible times in Europe, as have not been seen during this generation. Victor Emmanuel has a difficult task to deal with Garibaldi. The European tyrants will doubtless demand an extreme atonement upon him, but Garibaldi is the idol and the hope of the Italian people, and he gave the kingdom of Italy to Victor Emmanuel. Outside pressure will demand the murder of Garibaldi by order of the king. Internal policy and the security of the throne, will urge that not a hair of his head shall be injured, while gratitude, if a king can feel that emotion, would compel him to throw his crown into the sea, sooner than not defend the man from whom he received it. Further developments on these difficult and delicate questions will be looked for with the intensest interest.

AN OLD OFFENDER TURNED UP.—The New York Herald of Thursday says: Detective O'Connor, of the First Precinct, yesterday traced Charles E. Belding, charged with having forged the signature of Mr. C. O. Childs, publisher of the Philadelphia Public Ledger, to a promissory note for $800, drawn in favor of D. H.
Mitchell, a resident of Titusville, Pennsylvania.
This forged note, altered, Belding sold to Messrs. Dudley & Burton, of No. 10 Beaver street, and he was arrested on complaint of that firm. He was committed to the Tombs by Justice Hogan, having been remanded for further examination to await the arrival of Mr. Childs from Philadelphia to testify as to the forgery.

The offender in this case is very well known in Yankee county, having formerly resided for some time in Pleasantville, where he practiced law. He was a young man of remarkable talents but dissipated habits, and his propensity for using other people's signatures without permission was very notorious. Three or four instances of this kind occurred during his stay at Pleasantville, and Mr. D. H. Mitchell, of Enterprise (not Titusville) was then one of his victims.
He always succeeded in evading the penalties of his crimes, a circumstance probably attributable to the civility and forbearance of his victims.

When the war broke out Belding enlisted a company of volunteers and went into the service, leaving his wife and six children dependent upon their own exertions. Shortly afterward he was arrested and taken to Washington and imprisoned in the Old Capitol for defrauding various members of his company of their pay. After his release he went about the country lecturing and collecting funds in behalf of the Sanitary Commission, and delightfully pocketing the proceeds. He was arrested, tried and convicted at Harrisburg, and sentenced to imprisonment, and that was the last heard of him by his old acquaintances until the above-mentioned appeared. Belding is an incorrigible scoundrel, but his last escapade is likely to provide for his maintenance for a considerable term of years.

Plant Trees.
Full tree-planting should occur about the 20th of October, and from the facilities afforded for procuring choice fruit, shade and ornamental trees, it is hoped the present season will be largely improved by our patriotic residents. Now is the time to forward your orders to the nurserymen. Nothing adds so materially to the beauty and value of private residences as a fine growth of trees and shrubbery. The burning blights in spring, and the grateful shade and fragrance which they impart in summer, amply repay the original outlay and the years of careful culture which precede their perfect development.

The fact that a tree cannot be forced to full proportion in a single year is the best argument why the impatient step of putting it in the ground should be the first work done in the preparation of private grounds. Yet, as a general rule, it is the last. The well digged, the building is raised, the fence is built, the earth is sodded, the pavements are laid, the barn and the carriage house are painted, and even the kitchen is carpeted and fired for the winter, before anything like real ornamentation is thought of.

A judicious selection of trees and timely planting should elicit the attention of every real estate owner in our city. The private grounds of some of our citizens are already models of beautitiful taste and beauty, but the setting of young forest trees at the verge of the sidewalk has not yet become general. All of the principal streets might in a few years be thus converted into handsome and attractive avenues, diversifying the prospect, enhancing the value of property, and leading an agreeable charm to every neighborhood that is not cursed with two or three houses of ill-fame, like Diamond street. When are these vile establishments to be wiped out?

PAY FOR YOUR PAPER.—Too many are apt to think that it matters little whether a newspaper is paid for promptly or not, "as such a small sum that it is of little consequence." An exchange makes the following apposite remarks in relation to the matter: Unless the cash system is exclusively adopted and rigidly observed, we know of no business amounting to so small a sum the printer cannot be much in want of it, without for a moment thinking that the fruits of his entire business are made up of exactly such little sums, and that the accrued amount of subscribers is by no means an inconceivable amount of money, and without which the publishers could not continue to issue their paper.

Get Assured To-day.
This is the last day of grace. If you have not paid a State or county tax in Pennsylvania within five years you will lose your vote, unless your name is expunged upon the Assessor's books ten days prior to election, or in other words to-day.
The Assessor is as follows:
First Ward—John McDaniel, residence, Brook street.
Second Ward—J. P. Scoville, at Smith & Hinkley's, Hardware Store, Diamond street.
Third Ward—John Kellogg, saddle and horse shoe shop, north of Second National Bank, on Washington street.
Fourth Ward—Norman Pier, residence, Franklin street, first house south of the Bridge, west side.

A Disappointment.—Colonel Matthews at Pittsburgh.
Colonel R. Blockett Matthews, of Maryland, who was advertised to speak in Cathedral Hall last evening, unfortunately failed to arrive, and the audience were subjected to a severe disappointment. We do not know who is to blame for it. The appointment was made by the Central Committee, the meeting had been widely advertised, and the hall would have been filled to its greatest capacity. As arrangements had not been made for other speakers, the audience were compelled reluctantly to disperse without listening to any one. That our readers may be judged of the caliber of Colonel Matthews as a political speaker, we copy the closing portion of a speech delivered by him in Pittsburgh on Thursday evening:
The speaker reviewed the course of the Democratic and Republican parties. He claimed that the Democracy was responsible for the evils that have befallen the country, for prior to 1861 they held the entire power of the country at their disposal. They had a majority in the Cabinet, in Congress, and had on the Bench a man of unblemished reputation, as far as decisions between man and man were concerned, and although he was dead and sleeping beneath the sod of his native State, I cannot but feel that he would be displeased in the purity of his character, yet as a politician and Judge he was a representative of the Democratic power. You may say that Judge Taney was a traitor, and that he was a traitor in his position as Chief Justice, and yet, if he has in his heart the principles of the Democracy, if it should be necessary to him to decide that John Brown was a traitor, and Heaven turned him to Hell, for the purpose of upholding the Democratic victory. You may take an old dyed in the wool, warranted not to fade (laughter) Democrat of the old school, and his integrity is only limited by his power. You may elect him to place of Shawward, and he is of the work on the National Ethics, an honorable, upright and exemplary gentleman in private life—a man against whom there is no private scandal, and against whom there is no charge of corruption; a man who would scorn a bribe as he would the touch of a leper. You may elect him to the Supreme Bench, and if a question comes up in which the entire country is interested, and he is asked to decide a question in clear daylight when the morning sun is shining in his splendor, in case it should be necessary he will decide that all is beneath darkness, and every man looking as if he were blind. Pittsburgh a quarter of a century.
[Loud laughter.]

I pity the Democratic party, but I wonder while I pity that party that is daily enjoying the benediction of the Democracy, how they can be so stupid as to believe that they are doing the manner in which our Government is run, should have any principles. Some of the Democrats never learn anything new, but the Democratic party is worse than that, they never observe any thing.

They don't know the rebellion has closed; they don't know that the constitutional amendment has been adopted; they don't know that a policy called Reconstruction is in vogue; they don't know that the destinies of this country (Ohio) in this country is taken as a law that the majority is to rule, and the legislation of the land should have a scope and power printed upon them, and that the people are to be ruled by a loyal Congress. [Loud cheers.] The Democratic would, if he had the power, and dared to meet the American people, imitate the example of the traitor, and would have the traitor out of doors and become the Dictator of the Empire.
There has never been a more substantial declaration of the people's will than that which has been made by the people of Ohio, and that which has been made by the people of the United States.
When our representatives stood there deliberating with each other, and with moody foreboding looked to the mighty task, looking upon the dark horizon and wondering what step they should take, and how they could best subserve the interests of the people, the public will was thundered in the voice of the Capitol, and gray-haired men have been elected to the position of President, and growing out of the contest, inspired by that pluck which has characterized a nation grown out of a civil war and crowned with a glorious victory, have elected a President for the future of the nation. How our Legislators went along feeling their way, knowing that the strong arm of the nation was sustaining them, and that the love of the people was with them. How these men have elected a President for the future of the nation, and how they have elected a President for the future of the nation, and how they have elected a President for the future of the nation.

Publishing Private Letters.
Andrew Johnson has an unimpeachable habit of publishing private letters. A year ago or more he published one addressed to him by Hon. C.
A. Dana. Shortly afterward he printed one addressed to him by Horace Greeley. The object in each instance being to render the writers foolish in the estimation of the public. It is stated that Mr. Johnson intends to publish a large collection of similar letters between now and the next Presidential election.
A burglar named Frank Riley was arrested in Chicago a few days ago for the crime of breaking open a safe in Louisville, Kentucky, and taking therefrom the sum of forty-six thousand dollars. Among the assets found on his person by the officers of justice was the following letter:
"EXECUTIVE MANSION."
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 13, 1866.
"Henry A. Smyth, Collector of Customs, New York."
SIR: This will introduce to your favorable consideration Frank Riley, of New York city, with whose character I became acquainted in Tennessee, and whom I commend to you as worthy of a suitable appointment under you.
"Very truly yours,"
"ANDREW JOHNSON."

This document was in a very dilapidated condition, arising from constant use, as Mr. Riley informed the officers. A great many people, he said, had wanted to see it. The public curiosity will be gratified now to an extent not dreamed of by Mr. Riley, or the "humble individual" who became acquainted with his character in Tennessee. When the Johnson collection of private letters comes to be published, this one will naturally add to the title page.

THE EMPIRE STATE.—The New York Republican State Convention, which met at Syracuse on Wednesday, nominated a very strong ticket.
The military element is well represented by General McKean and Gates, the former of whom, now candidate for Secretary of State, has been twice elected to Congress, and he served as Chairman of the Committee on Expenditures in the State Department. He has a brilliant war record, and is exceedingly popular with the boys in blue.

The candidate for Comptroller, Mr. Halliwell, of St. Lawrence, is now a member of Congress, in which body he has previously served two terms with a high reputation for ability and integrity.

Charles Mason, the candidate for Judge of the Court of Appeals, is now a Judge of the Supreme Court in the Sixth District. Judge Van Cott, the candidate for Attorney General, is an eminent lawyer of Brooklyn.

A "LOCAL" FIRST EFFORT.—A Chicago paper says:
We took a new reporter on trial yesterday. He was a young fellow, and he was a very good day, returned with the following, which he said was the best he could do: "Yesterday we saw a sight which froze our marrow with horror. A backman driving down Clark street at a rapid pace came near running over a nurse and her children. There would have been one of the most heart-rending catastrophes ever recorded, had not the nurse, with wonderful foresight, and providentially a step, saved the children from the back of the horse. Then, too, the backman, just before reaching the crossing, thought of something he had forgotten, and turning about, drove back to the crossing, and there he stood for this wonderful occurrence of a few moments stances a joking jester, a jiving maverick, and affectionate brothers and sisters, would have been plunged into the deepest woe, and most understandable general expenses." The reporter will be retained.

The Irish Political Mistake.
The Irish Republic published in Chicago, in the leading organ of the Fenian Brotherhood, in the United States. It was obtained a large circulation and wielded much influence among the more intelligent class of Irishmen. In its last issue but one there appears a strong article upon the political mistake made by the Irish in the United States in voting the pro-slavery ticket, and supporting the pro-slavery party while clamoring for liberty in Ireland. We quote the following extracts from it:
"There are ten millions of the Irish race on this continent. Why are they here? The tyranny to which they are subjected made life in Ireland a living hell. They came here, then, to escape slavery and join freedom? They do."
"To what account have they turned their most unblinded power as freemen in this great Republic? Have they been true to the motto for the advancement of their race, and have they drawn the sword where chains were to be rent asunder? Have they insisted struggling against and people of their own race, and helped themselves to the fruits of the people who have filled the ears of the world with their cries for Irish liberty, and who have suffered so long and so severely beneath the yoke of the tyrant? Have they been true to the rank of that army that 'United Irishmen' was its banner, and the action of the Irish-American nation, and since the late rebellion in which they were the first to rise, and the first to die, have they been true to the principles of their race, and have they been true to the principles of their race, and have they been true to the principles of their race, and have they been true to the principles of their race, and have they been true to the principles of their race, and have they been true to the principles of their
